

Donation for Biblical Counseling

We are so thankful that you are interested in pursuing biblical counseling. First Biblical Counseling primarily exists through the generous support of First Baptist Church of Sedalia as a ministry to our members and community.

While our counselors receive no pay or compensation, the church incurs various costs to provide counseling (for instance, utilities, resources, maintenance, and various additional expenses). To help offset these costs and ensure our counseling ministry can help as many people as possible, we ask for a suggested donation based upon your tax bracket.

All donations received will be used to continue the work of providing biblical counseling to our community. Donations may be made through our church's website (www.fbcsedalia.org) under the biblical counseling tab, "Donations." You may also make a donation at your counseling appointment via cash or check.

If cost is prohibitive, then please contact us before counseling begins. We will not let cost prohibit anyone from receiving biblical counseling.
